Comedy divas Goretta Chadwick and Anapela Polataivao (aka Pani and Pani) team up with Auckland Theatre Company to bring you WE CAN'T PAY! WE WON'T PAY! by Dario Fo*, adapted by Vela Manusaute.

Rita and Nia have had enough! They raid the local supermarket with the other mummies, making off with anything they can grab. Crazy antics follow as our hapless heroines try to hide shopping bags of booty from their dim-witted husbands and the community constable bent on tracking them down.

Fortunately Saint Ulalala, the great god of the Pacific, comes to their aid with immaculate conceptions and miracle births!

Don't miss this staged reading of Dario Fo's play – given a South Auckland makeover by Kila Kokonut King Vela Manusaute – before it takes the world by storm.

 The NCEA Level 2 theatre form standard AS 90302 could use Commedia dell Arte as its subject.

A staged reading is an opportunity for an audience to see a play that is still being developed.

Usually there are few costumes or props, and the actors may still be reading from their scripts.

Come and experience the raw power of the play and the performers at this special event!

Suitable for year levels 10 – 13.

WARNING: Contains occasional use of strong language.
